ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost, I would like to express my profound gratitude and respect to my academic advisor, Assistant Professor Dr. Chanchai Sangchyoswat, Department of Soil Science and Conservation, Faculty of Agriculture, Chiang Mai University, Thailand for his scientific guidance, close supervision, invaluable and constructive advice and his encouragement throughout the course of study. My deep gratitude also goes to my co-advisor Assistant Professor Dr. Thaworn Onpraphai for his peer review, priceless comments, suggestion and encouragement. Also, I would like to express my appreciation to the external examiner Dr. Kanjana Chuenpichai for her valuable remarks during my thesis defense.

Special thanks are also extended to Ministry of Agriculture and Irrigation, Union of Myanmar for providing me the opportunity to pursue this master's degree and the Thailand International Development Cooperation Agency (TICA) for the financial support, without which the pursuit of my study would have been impossible here. Moreover, my sincere thanks are to all academic and administrative staffs of Multiple Cropping Center (MCC), who have provided me a homely and friendly environment during my study period at Chiang Mai University.

I would like to thanks Ajarn Phrek Gypmantasiri, the former chairman who taught me Case Study of Agricultural Systems and Sustainable Agricultural Systems; I also would like to thanks Assoc. Prof. Dr. Benchaphun Ekasingh, the new chair person of the Agricultural Systems program for arranging everything for us, Dr. Methi Ekasingh who taught me Basic of Agricultural Systems, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Attachai

Jintrawat who taught me Research Formulation and Decision Support System for Agro-technology Transfer, it makes me useful and helpful to my present and further study, Dr. Jirawan Kitchaicharoen who taught me Analysis of Agricultural Systems.

I am very much delighted to pay thanks for the warm and cordial friendship provided by all AGS students- juniors, mates as well as seniors: (Juthamas, Lo Sokha, Pasalath, Rathi, Tharsinithevy, Yupaporn Siribut, Soe Soe Win, S.Gyawali, Mr. Duc, Mr.Han, Mr. Minjula, Ms. Wilawan and Ms. Soe Ma Ma). Many thanks also go to all oversea Myanmar students for sharing joyful moments in Chiang Mai.

I would like to extend my greatest appreciation to my beloved father U Hla Shwe, my mother Daw Yi and my elder brother U Kyaw Htay for their kindness support and encouragement during my study in Thailand. My special thanks should go to my beloved wife Daw Khin Ohnmar Sint and my beloved little daughter Kyal Sin Linn Lae. I cannot possess this achievement without their far-sightedness, endless support and mentally encouragement while I was in Chiang Mai.

I am indebted to all my teachers from primary education to now at Multiple Cropping Center of Chiang Mai University for their efforts and inspiration in my educational carrier up to this end.

Last but not least, I wish to thanks everyone whose names could not be mentioned individually.
