ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, I would like to express my gratitude to my thesis advisor Associate Professor Dr. Benchaphun Ekasingh for her conscientious support from initial conceptualization of proposal until finalization of thesis in this form. I wish to describe sincerely and earnestly for her invaluable supervisions in all directions with fruitful criticisms, creditable suggestions, close support and encouragement.

I am grateful to my co-advisor Assistant Professor Dr. Chanchai Sangchyoswat for his peer review, constructive comments, suggestion and encouragement. Similarly, I would like to express my appreciation to the external examiner Ajarn Phrek Gypmantasiri for his valuable remarks during my thesis defense and memorable lectures about sustainable agriculture and also case study.

Special thanks are also extended to the Thailand International Development Cooperation Agency (TICA) for the financial support, without which the pursuit of my study would have been impossible, and Ministry of Agriculture and Irrigation, Union of Myanmar for providing me the opportunity to pursue this master's degree here.

At the Multiple Cropping Centre (MCC), my heartfelt acknowledge to Associate Professor Dr. Attachai Jintrawat, Assistant Professor Dr. Sakda Jongkaewwattana, Lecturer Dr. Budsara Limmirankul, Assistant Professor Dr. Thaworn Onpraphai, Lecturer Dr. Kamol Ngamsomsuke, and Lecturer Dr. Jirawan Kitchaicharoen. They all provided improbable lectures, shared knowledge and experience to complete my study successfully. Furthermore, my sincere thanks lengthen to Khun O (Ms. Chatnapa) and Khun Nim (Ms. Naruemon) for their eagerness even in her difficult time and their kind helpfulness to all the students in every aspect on the administrative matter. My thanks are continuing to all staffs who have provided and made me feeling to be homely and friendly environment during my study period at Chiang Mai University.

I delighted profoundly to show appreciations for their warm and cordial friendship provided, they are all AGS students- seniors, mates, and juniors: Mrs. Ratih, Mr. Pasalath, Ms. Tharsinithevy, Ms. Sokha, Ms. Pinthukas, Mrs. Chintucha, Ms. Tinarat, Mrs. Samanmali, Mr. Arif, Khamko, Hai, Marufa, Myint Myint Khaing, Theint Theint Aung and Ei Ei Cho. Many thanks also go on to all oversea Myanmar students who study in other faculties for sharing fantastic movements in Chiang Mai.

My precious appreciation and gratitude are due to all of my teachers from Department of Agricultural Research (DAR), Myanmar; Dr. Toe Aung (former Director General), U John Ba Maw (Director General), U Hla Tin (Director), my aunt Daw Aung May Than (Director) and U Thant Lwin Oo (Deputy Director) for their kindness and continuous support for my study. My special thanks are extending to Sayama Dr. Theingi Myint for her guidance and supporting in my study. Moreover, I would like to gratitude the Agricultural Extension Officers and all staff from Myanmar Agriculture Service for their help and providing facilities during my field survey. It is my pleasure to prove all farmers for their enthusiastic participation in my field survey, Yatsauk and Pindaya Township, Southern Shan State, Myanmar.

Finally, I would like to extend my greatest appreciation to my beloved father, U Thein Win and my beloved mother Daw Nyunt Nyunt, who always gives their indescribable loves, inspiration and supports. I felt warmly with my beloved husband, U Zaw Lin Aung, for his constant encouragement and valuable reinforcement for my study especially in survey period and my little daughter Shwe Sin Oo as well. I cannot acquire this accomplishment without their far-sightedness, continuous support and mentally encouragement while I was in Chiang Mai.

Last but not least, I wish to record and thank everyone whose names could not be mentioned individually.

Win Thida Oo
