ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

To My Heroes “ Chaloemsak and Patcharee Chaikijkosi “

My worth Ph.D have taken me a long, long time of motivation and energy. Many people supported me physically and mentally. I would like to thank them particularly.

The most important people that I would like to express my gratitude are my family. I thank my beloved father and mother who are my role models, my brothers and my Chiang-Mai family especially my aunty, Associate Professor Kannikar Pongsanit who always support me in every possible way during the years. Thanks for continuously and unconditionally supporting my ambitions. I dedicate this thesis to you, dad and mom.

My warm gratitude goes to Assistant Professor Dr. Napat Harnpornchai for giving me the opportunity, supporting me, and fulfilling me my personal ambition. I thank him for challenging me and guiding me throughout this research period. I could not have been more fortunate. You are a wonderful supervisor, thank you.

Also, the next important person who is one of the opportunity givers for this degree that I have to sincerely say thank is Mr.Trairat Chatkaew for the great opportunity of work and study.

Next, I want to thank Dr. Nopasit Chakpitak and Dr. Tirapot Chandarasupasang for their contributions. All suggestions in research are highly appreciated.

The last person that I would like to think of is Mrs. Lerdlux Nil-anan, CAMT officer who always provide me the coordination throughout many years of my study.

I also thank all the people that have shared their opinions in the research. Without you, this research would not have been possible.

Tuang-Ath Chaikijkosi
