ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all, I would like to acknowledge and sincerely thanks to my thesis supervisors: Assoc. Prof. Dr. Patcharawan Srisilapanan who facilitated, guided, directed and helped me in my thesis; Prof. Dr. Wichit Srisuphan who provided high quality advice; and Prof. Dr. Aubrey Sheiham who also provided high quality advice, constructive feedback and generous encouragement over a number of years. All of your guidance were invaluable to get me through difficult stages. Thank you for your encouragement and making yourself available when really needed. I am also think of Dr. Peerasak Malikaew who passed away and thank for his guidance and support in the beginning of the study.

My grateful thank to the Commission on Higher Education Staff Department for PhD scholarship and the Thai Health Promotion Foundation for fund of conducting the whole study.

To my colleagues, both dean and staff members in Faculty of Dentistry, Naresuan University, thank you for continually asking “how is your thesis going?”. It was nice to know that others recognised my task and remembered how size it was. In addition, thank you for the opportunity to discuss problems and listen to my ideas. Moreover, the most sincere thanks to all of you who carrying out my teaching duties for a number of years.

Acknowledgement as well to the many people who assisted with the conduct of the study, including: preschool parents, school staffs and school board members who generously made themselves available to participate in focus group discussions; Mom's friends and other observers who also generously were study's observers; and preschool children who were cute and let me and staff observed them during data collection. A special thank you to Mom Pen for introducing me to a field study, challenging me to think more critically, and being generous coordinated and organised the field work and wonderful mentor.

I would like to thank all my friends, both from hometown and from Dental school. Thank you for giving me the opportunity to listen to my problems, discussed, and then made me laugh. Thanks a lot.

Lastly and most importantly, I would like to thank my family. My sincere special thanks to my mom who inspires me and always support me in everything since I was born. To my husband, thank you for your support, sharing ideas, and filling in for me at home. To my dear little daughter, Bai-Toey, who fills in my life, thank you for your lovely and make me happy all time.
