ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to many persons whose generosity and helpfulness have contributed to this project.

I would like to extend my appreciation to Assistant Professor Doctor Varisara Sirimaharaj and Associate Professor Doctor Sittichai Wanachantararak, my advisors, invaluable guidance, advice and support during this project and other aspects of my Master's course.

I wish to thank Assistant Professor Chompoonuch Kunlertkij, Assistant Professor Jurairat Kunachaichote, Dr. Papimon Chompuinwai, Dr. Piranit Kantaputra, Dr. Ubonwan Teerapiboon, lecturers from Pediatric dentistry division, for their instruction and support through the course. And special thanks to Ms. Phirawan Chiranantraphorn for helping me in processing administration work smoothly.

I am grateful in kindness of the patients and their parents who provided the teeth for the research. Without them this study would not have been possible. Many thanks to the staffs from dental departments in the hospitals and many private dental clinics in Chiang Mai Province who's collected the teeth for me. I wish to thank the dental assistant staffs from Pedodontics clinic for helping me in keeping the teeth.

I am grateful to Mrs. Suchanya Aroonrungle for her help concerning scanning electron microscopic. Thank the Institute of product quality and standardization Maejo University for favor the gold-palladium coater and the Scanning Electron Microscopic. Many special thanks for the Department of Orthodontics and Pediatric Dentistry, Faculty of Dentistry, Chiang Mai university.

I would like to recognize The Graduate School, Chiang Mai University and Faculty of Dentistry, Chiang Mai University for the financial support in my research.

I am thankful my beloved friends, Dr. Onnida Wattanarat, Dr. Porntipa Pipatpaitoon, Dr. Amornrat Suwannachai, Dr. Sathian Suravisankul, Dr. Darin Tachachonggintana, Dr. Sinee Chaowarat, Dr. Tatsana Saelim, Dr. Kamoltip Boonsongsawat, and Dr. Achiraya Duanduan for being the consultants. And special thanks Mr. Preecha Fangphasertsuk for his encourages and understands me.

This thesis is dedicated to my parents, Mr. Vichan Rangcharoen and Mrs. Rungkan Rangcharoen, my aunt, Mrs. Saknop Sanaejan and my sister, Ms. Vikanda Rangcharoen for their warmest love, and encouragement in everything especially in doing the research work. Everybody makes me success in my research. Thank you very much.
