First of all, I would like to thank the Faculty of Economics, Chiang Mai University and my honorable professors for the lectures and guidance throughout my study in Thailand.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my thesis committee; Professor Voravidh Charoenleot, Professor Thanes Sriwichailamphan and Professor Daniel Schoch, for their guidance and support. I am also deeply indebted to Dr. Thein Swe from Payap University for his valuable comments and advice.

Moreover, I kindly would like to thank Thabyay Education Network and Supplementary Grant Program (SGPB) for the scholarship for my study in Chiang Mai University. My special thanks to Ms. Shona Kirkwood and all Thabyay staff, for their kind assistance for my study. I also would like to express my appreciation and gratefulness to Dr. Zaw Oo, the Director of the Community Development and Civic Empowerment Program (CDCE), Chiang Mai University and Dr. Mya Than from Chulalongkorn University for his guidance and encouragement.

Furthermore, I would highly like to acknowledge and thank to Myanmar Restaurants and services agencies from Malaysia while I conducted my survey. I am also obliged to all Mon people from Malaysia and Mon State in Myanmar for kindly providing me relevant data and arranging of the survey.

I am very much grateful to all of my classmates for their lively discussion. Specially, I am thankful to Ms. Soe Nandar Linn for her kind encouragement.

Lastly, I would truly like to thank my beloved parents, my brother and sister for their love and greatest support me to overcome all difficult time in my life. I dedicate this thesis to my parent, who always encouraged me to achieve my goals.
